nity ever held.

CENSUS ENUMERATORS

HAVE BEEN NAMED.

Sixteen Selected to Cover the City and Town of Norwich.

The appointment of the sixteen census enumerators for the enumerating district of Norwich was announced on Saturday, this district including the city and town. Eleven enumerators work in the city limits and five in the town. The following are the appointments:

City—Vivian R. Allen, Patrick J.
McNerny, Christian A. Marx, Herman Alofsin, Ed. George Lunaden, East Side—Henry Gebraeth, Nelson
M. Baldwin, Greeneville—Cornelius J. Downes, is completed on May 1st. Special Agent Cornelius A. Downes had to find three extra enumerators after the examinations reports had been received, as two out of the 15 who took examinations failed to pass. The enumerators are paid at the rate of 2 cents for each person they count, 30 cents for farms and 10 cents for each enclosure where there are kept heads of livestock.

Anniversary of Spiritualists.

The anniversary of Modern Spiritualism was observed on Sunday in the services at the Spiritual Academy, where the pastor, Rev. A. P. Blinn, delivered the anniversary address, speaking fervently of the growth of spiritualism and the growth of spiritualism. This is the first time that Hok Harding of Somerville, Mass., gave a great number of spirit messages at the evening service, all well satisfyingly clear, and the solo, Some Sweet Day, was well rendered by Mrs.
Charles S. Smith. The service was conducted by Rev. A. P. Blinn, and

THE BLESSING OF EASTER

Beautiful Weather on Sunday Resulted in Large Attendance at Church—Special Sermons and Music.

No finer weather for Easter could have been desired than that of Sunday and the result was that there was a large attendance at all the churches for services throughout the day.
Handsome floral decorations had been attractively arranged and the special musical programmes, for which so much effort had been made, were given with characteristic beauty and finish.

Trinity Episcopal Church.

The text, I am the resurrection and the life, John XI 25, was the theme for a vigorous and inspiring Easter sermon by Archdeacon J. Eldred Brown at the morning service at Trinity Episcopal church, where the choir sang as the hope of the world for its highest ideals in this life and its Saviour who has died for us.
